

STATE OF OHIO
STATE PERSONNEL BOARD OF REVIEW

Teri L. Ruffner,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 08-REC-06-0320

Department of Rehabilitation and Correction,
Parole and Community Services,

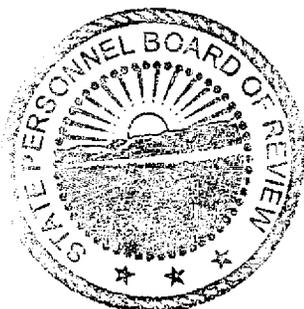

Appellee.

ORDER

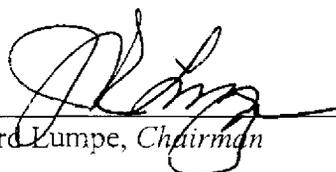

This matter came on for consideration on the Report and Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge in the above-captioned appeal.

After a thorough examination of the record and a review of the Report and Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge, along with any objections to that report which have been timely and properly filed, the Board hereby adopts the Recommendation of the Administrative Law Judge.

Wherefore, it is hereby ORDERED that the instant appeal be DISMISSED for lack of jurisdiction over its subject matter, pursuant to O.R.C. §§ 124.03 and 124.34.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This cause comes on due to Appellant's June 11, 2008 filing, among other things, of a reclassification appeal. There is no evidence in the record to suggest that a job audit was requested or otherwise performed on Appellant's position. Further, there is no suggestion in the record that a new or amended classification was assigned to Appellant's position. Accordingly, it does not appear that an event occurred that would impact on this Board's reclassification jurisdiction.

Additionally, the parties should note that Appellant has other cases filed with this Board ((i.e. an abolishment, a layoff, a reduction, and a miscellaneous case) and these cases are not impacted by the instant recommendation which affects only the instant case (i.e. 08-REC-06-0308).

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review DISMISS the instant appeal for lack of jurisdiction over its subject matter, pursuant to R.C. 124.03 and R.C. 124.34.

James R. Sprague
Administrative Law Judge
