REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This cause comes on due to Appellant's filing of a reduction appeal with this Board. Appellant presently occupies a position classified as Supervisory Secretary. Appellant asserts in her appeal that she does not perform the mandatory duties required by the Supervisory Secretary classification, specifically that she does not supervise at least one secretary, and that her position is, therefore, misclassified.

In order to constitute a reduction in position, Appellee must have taken an action to diminish Appellant's duties or responsibilities to an extent that an audit of the position would result in a reclassification to a classification assigned to a lower pay range. O.A.C. 124-1-02(Z). Appellant makes no assertion that she was at one time responsible for supervising at least one secretary, and that the job duty was subsequently removed by Appellee. Appellant further makes no assertion that she has been reduced in pay.

Accordingly, I find that Appellant has not been reduced in either pay or position, as defined by O.A.C. 124-1-02(Z). Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the instant appeal be DISMISSED.
