REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This cause comes on for consideration due to the Appellee's January 6, 2012, filing of motion to dismiss regarding the above-captioned case. The motion to dismiss contained: a memorandum in support; the affidavit of Superintendent Jennifer Rousculp, along with various accompanying documentation; and pertinent case law. Appellant was provided with the requisite amount of time to file a memorandum contra to Appellee's motion to dismiss, but, to date has not done so.

O.A.C. 124-11-07 sets forth the motions practice before this Board. O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A)(2) indicates that when a party files a dispositive motion, then an adverse party must respond affirmatively and show that there is a genuine issue in dispute. O.A.C. 124-11-07 (C) sets forth a ten-day time frame to respond to dispositive motions, such as the instant motions to dismiss. Appellant has failed to file the required response to Appellee's motion to dismiss and thus, has failed to comply with O.A.C. 124-11-07. Furthermore, Appellee's jurisdictional arguments that addressed the above captioned appeal appear to have merit, as well the contract that the Appellant signed, expressly states that he is "included in the unclassified service of the County Board and has no property rights to his position or any appeal rights to the State Personnel Board of Review,"

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review DISMISS the above captioned appeal for Appellant's failure to comply with the requirements set forth in O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A)(2) and (C).
