Steven M. Marroni,

Case No. 12-INV-04-0060

Appellant

v.

May 17, 2012

Industrial Commission Of Ohio,

Christopher R. Young

Appellee

Administrative Law Judge

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This cause comes on for consideration on May 17, 2012, upon the Appellant's filing of an investigation request with this Board on March 22, 2012. After a thorough reading of the Appellant's investigation request, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge could not determine what violation of civil service law he was requesting to have this Board to investigate.

As a result, on April 17, 2012, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge sent the Appellant a letter which stated:

Dear Steven M. Marroni:

Your initial request for the State Personnel Board of Review to conduct an investigation fails to allege with particularity any violation of the civil service law to which the Appellee may be required to respond. The civil service law of the State of Ohio is generally found within Ohio Revised Code Chapter 124. Ohio Revised Code Section 124.40 sets forth the procedure for a civil service investigation.

Therefore, unless we receive from you allegations setting forth the particularity those requirements of the civil service law which you believe have been violated by Appellee, your case will be dismissed. These allegations must be postmarked no later than May 1, 2012.

Very truly yours,

Christopher R. Young
Administrative Law Judge

To date, the Appellant has not filed any response to the undersigned's request dated April 17, 2012, nor has he requested an extension of time to file such response.

Ohio Administrative Code Section 124-7-05 (A) states, in pertinent part:

Investigations shall be conducted by and exchange of correspondence between the board and the parties. Unless a party to show good cause for its failure to respond, decisions will be based on information received within the response time allowed. . .

Therefore, having not shown good cause for his failure to file a response in this instant appeal, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review TERMINATE this investigation due to the Appellant's failure to respond to the undersigned's request.

Christopher R. Young
Administrative Law Judge
