To Whom It May Concern:

On February 3, I sent an appeals letter regarding the matter of being terminated from the Ashland Health Department on January 27th, 2012. Since this letter, I have sought legal council regarding this situation.

On March 5, 2012, I received a letter regarding the Status Conference Notice that is scheduled for April 5, 2012.

Upon speaking with legal council I have taken the advice and am asking that this case be dismissed at this time and no further action be taken on my behalf. When I spoke with a representative on the phone from the State Personnel Board of Review office, it was suggested that I make my request in writing attention Judge Marcie M. Scholl.

I want to thank you for your time in this matter and I apologize for any inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Heather Drotleff
