REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

These causes come on due to Appellee's October 11, 2013 filing of motions to dismiss and accompanying memoranda in support concerning each of the four above-captioned appeals. Appellant was provided with the requisite time and with additional time to file Appellant's memoranda contra to Appellee's motions to dismiss, but failed to do so.

These matters were set for Status Conference, which was scheduled to occur on October 11, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. Appellee appeared at Status Conference through its counsel, Assistant Attorney General Amanda L. Scheeser. Appellant attended the status conference appeared pro se. Appellee's moved to dismiss the four instant appeals for Appellant's failure to file these actions in a timely manner. The Appellant was instructed to file a memorandum in opposition if he so desired, which he has not to date. Further, it should be noted that two other accompanying appeals (2013-WHB-06-0142 and 2013-OSH-06-0143) are still pending and set for record hearing.

I find that Appellant has failed to comply with this Board's requirements for filing a memorandum contra to a properly filed and supported motion to dismiss, as set forth in O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A) (2) and (C). These violations evidence Appellant's failure to prosecute the above-referenced appeals, and merit dismissal of the matters.

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review GRANT Appellee's motions to dismiss and DISMISS the four instant appeals based upon Appellant's failure to prosecute his appeals, pursuant to O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A) (2) and (C).
