Michelle,

I received a call this morning from ALJ Sprague inquiring about the status of your case. He indicated his office has not received a formal withdrawal which would allow him to close the case if the case has been resolved. I believe the pay on July 11th included a retroactive pay adjustment for a longevity increase you were due. Please advise if there are any other unresolved issues surrounding the reclassification. Thanks!

Michelle,

Great news! We received the approval to reclassify your position and the action has been finalized and approved in the OAKS system. Yolanda has informed the Payroll Department of the approved action so they may monitor OAKS in the processing of a longevity increase payroll adjustment effective 5/4/2014. A retroactive adjustment tends to take a pay
