REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

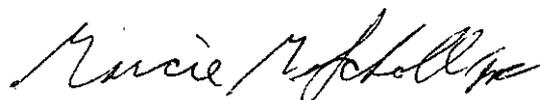

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

These causes come on due to Appellant's July 23, 2014 filing of a request for an investigation as well as an appeal regarding an alleged abuse of power. The respective records in these matters were then developed.

On November 17, 2014, Appellee filed Appellee's Motion to Dismiss Miscellaneous Appeal and Request for an Investigation and filed the accompanying affidavit of Jaime Erickson, a Human Capital Management Administrator 2 with Appellee. Appellant was provided with the requisite time to file a memorandum contra but, to date, has not done so.

O.A.C. 124-7-11 governs the motions practice before this Board. O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A) (2) and (C) combine to require that, when a motion to dismiss has been properly filed and supported, the non-moving party must respond within 10 days and must set forth facts showing that there is a genuine issue in dispute. Appellant has not complied with the requirements set forth in O.A.C. 124-11-07. Thus, these matters should be dismissed.

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review GRANT Appellee's motion and DISMISS the instant request for investigation and instant appeal, due to Appellant's failure to comply with the filing requirements set forth in O.A.C. 124-11-07 (A) (2) and (C).
