REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This matter came on for consideration upon Appellant's filing of an appeal with this Board. Information contained in the record indicates that Appellant has expressed a concern about the process that the Village of Greenfield may have utilized to select a Chief for its Police Department.

R.C. 124.03 (A) provides this Board with its general subject matter jurisdiction. Neither that provision nor any other provision in R.C. Chapter 124. provides this Board with authority to review a village's civil service appointment process. Moreover, the instant appeal does not appear to raise any allegations that would invoke this Board's review authority under R.C. 4167.13 (i.e. under Ohio's Public Employment Risk Reduction Program), which sets forth this Board's only jurisdiction over a village.

In the instant appeal, Appellant has raised allegations that appear to concern a potential conflict of interest regarding the appointment process that the Village of Greenfield may have utilized in selecting a Chief of its Police Department. *Although this Board lacks authority to review such matters, those same matters may fall under the jurisdiction of the Ohio Ethics Commission (OEC). If Appellant were to contact the OEC, that Commission could apprise Appellant as to whether the OEC possessed jurisdiction to review the allegations Appellant raises in this appeal.

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review DISMISS the instant appeal for lack of jurisdiction over its subject matter, pursuant to R.C. 124.03 et seq.

James R. Sprague
Administrative Law Judge
