REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

To the Honorable State Personnel Board of Review:

This matter came on for consideration upon Appellant's filing of an appeal with this Board. Information contained in the record indicates that Appellant was a municipal employee at the time of the appealed action.

R.C. 124.03(A) provides that this Board shall hear appeals of employees in the classified state service, as follows:

(A) The state personnel board of review shall exercise the following powers and perform the following duties:

(1) Hear appeals, as provided by law, of employees in the classified state service from final decisions of appointing authorities or the director of administrative services relative to reduction in pay or position, job abolishments, layoff, suspension, discharge, assignment or reassignment to a new or different position classification, or refusal of the director, or anybody authorized to perform the director's functions, to reassign an employee to another classification or to reclassify the employee's position with or without a job audit under division (D) of section 124.14 of the Revised Code. As used in this division, "discharge" includes disability separations. (emphasis added)

R.C. 124.01(B) defines "state service" as follows:

(B) "State service" includes all offices and positions in the service of the state and the counties and general health districts of the state. "State service" does not include offices and positions in the service of the cities, city health districts, and city school districts of the state. (emphasis added)

A municipal employee is not covered by the definitions set forth above. Accordingly, this Board lacks jurisdiction to directly hear a reduction appeal brought by a municipal employee. Conversely, Appellant's avenue of remedy may lie with the City of Toledo Civil Service Commission.

Therefore, I respectfully RECOMMEND that the State Personnel Board of Review DISMISS the instant appeal for lack of jurisdiction over its subject matter, pursuant to R.C. 124.03.

Administrative Law Judge
