Re: Case Number: 07-ABL-02-0060

Mr. Warren,

This letter is to inform you that I am dropping the appeal which was filed against the Athens Co. Sheriff. My grant for the position of an advocate for Athens County has been reconsidered and has been recommended for the funding from the Ohio Office of Criminal Justice Services. My new implementing agency for this new grant will be Nelsonville Police Department, under Chief David Redecker. My services as a Registered Advocate, licensed in the state of Ohio, will still be available for the entire area of Athens County.

I am not requesting any conditions from the Athens County Sheriff, my only wish is to be able to help the victims of Athens County.

Sincerely,

Cheryll Garvin, RA

SUBJECT: Proposal Number: 2004-WF-VA2-V8430, Domestic Violence Deputy and Advocate

On behalf of the Ohio Office of Criminal Justice Services (OCJS), I am pleased to inform you that your VAWA Grant Program application has been recommended for funding.

In order to receive funding for your project, please address the attached conditions and provide any required forms or documents as requested. Please respond to each condition in writing. To ensure efficient processing, clearly address each item and include the OCJS proposal number on each page submitted. Please fax responses to OCJS at (614) 466-0308 no later than 3/26/2007 .

Please note that all conditions must be addressed to receive VAWA Grant Program funding, and that failure to return this documentation by 3/26/2007 may jeopardize funding. For additional information or help regarding these conditions or forms, contact Jennifer Rife at (614) 644-6835 or rife@ocjs.ohio.gov.
